Dedication

Seated left to right: Mr. Richard Shaffer, Miss Liberta Ruozzo, Mr. Joseph Harvey.

To these three who have served us,

Tirelessly, patiently, and well,

Who were there when they were needed,

Who gave more than we required.

They put up with us

Endured our changes,

Weathered the storms of many an argument . . .

They saw our side of things

Even when it was not the same as theirs.

We thank them, our advisors

From our hearts,

and dedicate this book to them.

Our Exchange Student

To the class of '71, teachers and friends:

During the time that I have been here, I have observed many changes. The leaves abandoned the trees making them look like sad reflections of a time that is gone. Then the snow came covering everything white with that magic power that erases everything that is black or red or green. Suddenly things are white, pure and innocent.

As things changed, I changed too; I now have a new hope.

My desire is that some day human beings will find a power like that of the snow. A power that will erase the differences between the human groups. One that will erase the war that converts men into mechanical toys that kill and hate.

I hope that some day young people will find the right way to know themselves for the benefit of all mankind. Some day I hope that the countries of the world will find common goals and that no ideology will exist which can seperate the people of the earth.

Thanks a-lot, Love you, Lionel

The girls' gymnastics team completed another successful winning season this year with the record of six wins and two losses. The girls' team has never had a losing season since its beginning.

Mr. Glenn Sullinger, coach, spoke about the success of his team, "The experience of the upperclassmen and the progress of the younger team members means the difference between failure and success."

Both the girls' and the boys' teams compete against schools of all sizes because WPIAL does not seperate schools by size. This year our teams met teams from larger schools such as Butler, Ambridge, and Rochester, and only one local school our size, Union.

The senior girls on the team are Karin Danish, Karen Bowersox, and Donna Shaffer. All of them competed in every meet and were consistent performers.

E. Shoaff—Senior
Letterman—10-11-12

The boys' team this year finished with a record of two wins and six losses. The team lost senior Gary Perdue half-way through the season when he suffered a broken ankle. Senior Ed Shoaff broke his foot mid-way through the season but was able to compete.

The other senior members of the boys' team are Junior Reid, Steve Huff, and Mike Marino.

The girls compete in four events; floor-exercise, balance beam, uneven parallel bars, and vaulting. The boys' events are rings, side horse, high bar, parallel bars, floor exercises, and vaulting.

When asked about the team, Coach Sullinger said, "It takes a lot of discipline to be a gymnast and many hours of practice to be a good one."

Musical entertainment—Travis

A fragrance of pine, decorated trees, and snowflakes helped transform the cafeteria into a "Frosted Fantasy". The Christmas Dance was a semi-formal dance given in honor of the Junior Class. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

EDITORS

With skill and efficiency, the section editors worked hard to put together this well-planned and organized yearbook. Thank you.

TYPISTS

To the eight senior girls, we extend our gratitude for their competent work and faithfulness.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Neither rain, dirt, nor high places kept Mr. Joseph Kwolek of Kwolek Studios, Mr. George Milnes and Mr. Thad Bukowski from taking the pictures—right side up, upside down, or any way they looked best. Thank you.

BUSINESS STAFF

The yearbook sales was organized and directed by the business staff. The entire staff is to be congratulated for exceding the sales goal.

JUNIORS

Thanks to the Juniors for a job well done in assisting the section editors.

PARAGON REPRESENTATIVE

Many thanks to our representative from Paragon, the yearbook and publishing division of the Herff Jones Company, Mr. Gene Burke.

ADVISORS

To Miss Janet Davis and Miss Carol Robb for their patience, understanding, and advice, our appreciation and thanks for the entire yearbook staff.

We are indeed grateful to the administration, faculty, parents, and students of Shenango High for their cooperation.
